ACADEMIC ADMINISTRATIVE EXPERIENCE

Assistant Program Manager

2013 – 2014

University of Hawaii, Honolulu, Hawaii

- Co-managed an undergraduate research internship program at four institutions on two islands.
- Recruited Native Hawaiian and other underrepresented students into community college and university degree programs.
- Taught monthly professional development workshops, including resume writing, interview skills, and oral presentation techniques to prepare undergraduates for post-graduate positions.
- Conducted interviews and authored and designed the annual program newsletter.

Editorial Associate 2012 – 2013
South Asia Journal, Dhaka, Bangladesh

- Served as a liaison between the academic community and the magazine staff.
- Augmented the Journal's visibility and readership through targeted marketing to scholars of South Asia at academic institutions and conferences.
- Solicited and edited submissions for publication.

Marine Science Education Program Manager 2007 – 2010
University of Hawaii, Honolulu, Hawaii

- Served as co-chief scientist on two cruises, including a 12-day research expedition across the North Pacific Ocean to investigate the ecosystem effects of marine debris.
- Administered a nationwide microbial science grant program for public school educators.
- Managed a national program providing public school teachers with free access to portable, self-contained science kits.
- Supervised part-time office staff in the production of lesson materials.
- Created an educational tool that is featured in The Sant Ocean Hall at the Smithsonian.
- Established cooperative partnerships with other science education providers and Native Hawaiian/Pacific Islander interest groups.
- Designed and implemented diverse, standards-based education materials and programs in microbial oceanography for K-adult students and teachers.
